

Four-Year-Old Boy Wanders From Home For First Time And Police Find His Body Floating In Pond

Never before had four-and-a-half-year-old Lawrence Densmore of 109 Gray St. strayed away from home, but Friday afternoon he walked off—with another smaller boy, it is believed—and three hours later his body was recovered from Hill's Pond, a quarter mile away.

Little Lawrence was missed from his home about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Densmore, organized a search and when it was fruitless they became really worried. At 5:50 p.m. the father asked police assistance.

Two police officers in a scout car, Patrolmen Peter Greeley and Charles L. Sewall, were cruising about the neighborhood shortly after 6 o'clock when, in fairly shallow water in Hill's Pond, which is in Menotomy Rocks Park, they noticed something floating in the water.

It was a boy's body, and Patrolman Sewall waded in and brought it hurriedly into shore. Patrolman Greeley radioed headquarters and within a matter of minutes the fire department's special service truck was on the scene.

The firemen worked over the limp body for more than an hour without being able to bring back a spark of life. Dr. Leroy M. Titelbaume, who had also been summoned to the scene, finally had to pronounce the child dead.

The body was removed in the police ambulance to the L. E. A. Smith funeral parlors, where it was viewed by the medical examiner and—later—by the boy's heart-broken father.

Lawrence, who was the oldest of four children, was buried Monday from the family home, following services at 2 p.m.

The surviving children are Roger and Joyce Ann, three-year-old twins, and Stephen, 20 months old.

The family of the luckless child believe that he was accompanied by at least another boy when he either fell into the pond or waded beyond his depth. This other boy they think, was a younger child who, not quite realizing what had happened, ran home when Lawrence ran into trouble.

2 Teachers 'Retired' 'Cause Of Marriage Are Given Farewell

Smarting under what they term an unjust and outmoded school department ruling which robs local schools of good teachers merely because they have married, mothers of children attending the Hardy School joined Monday in a sorrowful farewell tea to two such "released" teachers: Mrs. Marion E. Ryder and Mrs. Louise Mathews.

At the tea, 13 of the women joined in signing a letter commending the Press for its editorial of last week concerning Mrs. Mathews, who immediately upon her release here was gladly engaged—at higher pay—by the town of Winchester.

Mrs. Ryder, a popular kindergarten teacher, likewise is being released but may possibly continue as an occasional substitute teacher.

cause she hates to give up her young charges.

Both Mrs. Mathews and Mrs. Ryder were guests of honor at the tea, held at Hardy School. All present made it clear they felt very sorry to see two such fine teachers barred from permanent appointment.

Gifts were presented to both, but it was far from a happy occasion and there were hints of tears here and there. Mrs. Mary Carlisle and Mrs. Henry Lance poured.

In the letter to the Press which 13 of the women present signed, hope was expressed that the publicity given to the case of Mrs. Mathews may lead "to have an outmoded law rescinded" to "pre-

Parallel Parking On Mass. Avenue Begins Monday As Meters Start Taking Autotists' Pennies, Nickels

The 300 parking meters recently installed in Arlington business areas are officially scheduled to go into operation Monday morning, and coincident with the use of meters all parking along the entire length of Mass. Ave., will be flush with the curb.

A considerable but unstated amount of pennies and nickels already has been deposited in the meters, by motorists under the impression that the devices already were in use.

A first collection was made Saturday, when Town Treasurer J. Wilbert Anderson—who will be in charge of receipts—delegated Deputy Collector William P. Dale to try out the vacuum-like collection device on wheels with which the town has been provided.

This collection apparatus consists of a tank mounted on rubber-tired wheels. The money from the meters flows into a funnel at the end of a flexible hose; this hose deposits the coins directly into the locked tank, which is opened later at the treasurer's office.

The selectmen, apprized Monday that necessary state approval had been received for all of the meter installations, directed the publication of an official notice notifying the public that the meters would go in use Monday. They will be in operation daily from 8 to 6 p. m.,

Other broken school windows were reported as follows:

Crosby School, 3; Junior High East, 1; Hardy School, 5; Locke School, 3; Cutter School, 2; High School, 1.

Flag Day Exercises Conducted By Elks

Flag Day exercises, conducted by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks throughout the country Monday, were held here at Junior High School West, with Police Lieut. Thomas F. Sullivan, past exalted ruler of Arlington lodge, as chairman.

The main speaker at the exercises, which were held in the school auditorium at 9:30, was Sheriff Louis K. Boutwell, former Army major general, who spoke on the Flag and its significance. It is a flag, he said, which has never known defeat, and which at the moment stands very much for national preparedness and unity.

Music for the program was furnished by the school orchestra. Officers and members of the lodge turned out in force to attend the exercises, which were attended also by the school pupils.

vent future occurrences of this nature."

Last week's editorial in the Press, decrying the school board's action in dismissing Mrs. Mathews (Mrs. Ryder) name was not mentioned at that time) was based on a communication from the parent of several school-age children.

The letter received by the Press this week reads:

"Editor, Arlington Press:

"May we congratulate you on publishing the anonymous letter regarding the married teachers in the Hardy School. Why the writer (of the letter) wished to remain nameless, we do not know, but the undersigned would be delighted to accept the authorship, as the letter states our feelings perfectly, except that it mentions only one teacher when two are involved.

"We hope that other teachers in the school system will not feel that we are pushing them in the background with this campaign. On the contrary, this effort to have an outmoded school law rescinded, is for their benefit also, as we hope to prevent future occurrences of this nature."

Keenan Head Of Publicity For Scouts

Henry E. Keenan, chairman of the Arlington District Boy Scouts of America, was elected a member of the executive board of Sachem Council and public relations chairman for the entire council area, at the council's annual meeting at Robbins Library hall Tuesday night.

Mr. Keenan, who has done an outstanding job handling publicity for the scouts locally, now will direct publicity for the district comprising Arlington, Belmont, Concord, Lincoln, Lexington, Bedford, Waltham and Watertown. W. Dale Barker will be publicity man, under Mr. Keenan, for the Arlington district.

G. Sherman Blair of Concord, was elected president of Sachem

Making its first public borrowing in 16 years, the town of Arlington this week secured a 20-year loan of $200,000 for school purposes at a record low rate of only one and a half per cent interest. The $200,000, which will be in the town treasury by July 1, is for Council. Other new officers will be: vice president, John Todd, Concord; vice president, Daniel Viles, Waltham; treasurer, Francis J. Carey; council commissioner, Arthur Leydon; executive board members at large, Horace H. Homer and W. Dale Barker.

Plans for the coming year were discussed and the council and district calendars are to be made up this summer for early distribution this fall. The next general meeting will be the annual scouts' week-end at Camp Sachem, Antrim, New Hampshire, on June 26 and 27 where the scouts of Sachem Council will enjoy a week-end at Camp under the same conditions and atmosphere as the scouts enjoy during their summer camping period which is officially opened July 4, for the 1948 season.

construction of the new Bishop School in the Morningside area.

Because of the town's exceptionally fine financial standing, 12 financial firms entered bids to supply the $200,000. All bids were at the rate of one and threequarter per cent interest, but additional offers of premiums brought the rate down still more.

The successful bidders, Weeder and Company of 24 Milk St., Boston, will supply the $200,000 at a net cost to the town of 1.54 per cent interest. The money is to be repaid at the rate of $10,000 every year.

Town Treasurer J. Wilbert Anderson told the Press after the bids were opened Tuesday noon: Arlington is borrowing money at a cheaper rate than any city or town in the state—all because of its sound financial condition."

He recalled that when Arlington made its last borrowing, 16 years ago, it had to pay 4.2 per cent interest.

In the prospectus Treasurer Anderson sent out in seeking bids, he listed Arlington's total indebtedness at only $10,000. This now becomes $210,000—still a remarkably low figure.

There are no uncollected taxes for either 1945 or 1946, and only $20,872.45 uncollected of the 1947 levy of $2,492,410.

AMVETS To Donate Portable 'Iron Lung' For Use By Police

Arrangements are being made by the local AMVETS—Arlington Post 20, American Veterans of World War II—for a big benefit dance at town hall Friday, July 16, the proceeds of which will pay for a portable iron lung which the AMVETS will present to the police department.

Police Chief Archie F. Bullock has gratefully accepted the offer of the iron lung, and formal presentation will be made at the July 16th dance.

The dance here, with its accompanying sale of tickets to finance the iron lung purchase, will be in celebration of the AMVETS' charter day, with similar dances being held throughout the country. In Boston, the charter day observance will be on July 23.

Ken Edwards' orchestra has been booked for the event here, it is announced by Edward Reilly of 172 Florence Ave., local post commander.

An additional attraction at the dance will be a beauty contest. Recently, the post picked Jean Taft, 17, as its entry for the title of "Miss Arlington," and at the dance other girls will be invited to compete so that a final selection may be made. The girl chosen July 16 will be entered in a state-wide AMVETS' contest.

The iron lung to be presented to the police will be a welcome addition to the present equipment of the combination patrol-ambulance, and will be available to residents in emergencies.

Mr. Lord, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Lord of Brooklyn, N.Y., is a veteran of Army Air Force service.

On their return from a New York wedding trip, the couple will live in Arlington.

AT COLORFUL NUPTIALS performed in the Sacred Heart Church of Newton Centre, on June 5, Miss June Ann Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Hill of Newton Centre and Brewster became the bride of Mr. Joseph Francis Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller of Arlington. White gladioli decorated the altar and the pews as the bride, wearing a beautiful gown of white satin outlined in seed pearls and crystal was escorted to the altar on the arm of her father. A tiara of seed pearls and crystal held her long veil of silk illusion which draped over the full cathedral train of her gown. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and stephanotis.

Miss Janet Marie Hill as honor attendant for her sister, in deep aqua dotted mousseline de soie gown with basque waist and bishop sleeves, carried amazon lilies with matching headress. In similar gowns, the bridesmaids, Miss Jacqueline Miller, of Arlington, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Mary P. Mahoney of Cambridge; Miss Patricia A. Fergus of Medford; and Mrs. James Malone, Jr., of Newton Centre wore a lighter shade of aqua and carried amazon lilies with matching headresses.

Mr. Thomas Lynch Miller was best man for his brother and the ushers were James T. Duane of Waltham; Stephen E. Kelly of Newton Highlands; Russell Noreen of Arlington; and James L. Malone Jr., of Newton Centre.

Assisting in the receiving of the guests at the wedding breakfast and reception at Longwood Towers, Mrs. Hill, mother of the bride, chose a full length gown of lilac chiffon while Mrs. Miller wore a gown of aqua silk crepe with pink accessories.

The bride was graduated from Boston Academy of Notre Dame, and Emmanuel College. Mr. Miller is a graduate of Berkley Preparatory School and Boston College. He is completing his studies at Boston College Law School.

On their return from a wedding trip to Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Miller will live on Cleveland St. in Arlington.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Florence M. Boese, daughter of Mrs. Helen M. Boese and the late Mr. Boese of Framingham, to Walter S. Caldwell Jr., of Arlington, has been announced. Mr. Caldwell, a graduate of Franklin Tech., is an electrical engineer affiliated with Hubbard, Lawless and Blakeley in New Haven, Conn. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. WEARING A BEAUTIFUL WHITE ILLUSION GOWN embroidered with seed pearls and a full length train, Miss Edna Mae Wickwire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wickwire of Arlington became the bride recently of Mr. Robert Francis Curtin, son of Mr. George Curtin of Dorchester, in the rectory of St. Peter's Church, Dorchester.

Her three-quarter length veil of silk net, trimmed with heirloom lace was caught to a pearl headress and she carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations centered by a white orchid.

Mrs. Olive O'Brien of Arlington, sister of the bride, was matron of honor wearing a gown of yellow organdy and silk. Her bouquet and veiled headband were fashioned with blue delphinium and yellow roses. Another sister, Miss Doris Wickwire of Arlington, as bridesmaid, wore pink satin and net. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and baby's breath and wore pink rosebuds in her hair.

Mr. Edward Peters of Dorchester was best man.

Mrs. Curtin was graduated from the Fisher School. Her husband was with the U. S. Marine Corp in the Pacific area for three years.

Following a motor trip to Canada the couple will make their home in Reading.

Miss Werner Given Shower

Miss Dorothy Werner of 18 Cleveland St., who is to be married to Leonard Morrell of Dorchester, was tendered a bridal shower at her home last week, when she received many gifts for her new home.

Serving as maid of honor for her sister, Mrs. Carl G. Melin of Toledo, O., wore pink taffeta and carried a mixed flower bouquet tied with blue ribbon. Matching flowers formed her headress.

In blue taffeta and carrying similar bouquets tied with pink ribbon, the bridesmaids were Miss Eleanor Smith of Arlington and Miss Pauline Constantine of Medford. They also wore matching flowered headpieces.

Lauds Femia For Work As Dog Officer

"Arlington Press:—
"I wish to express through the columns of the Press my sincere thanks to the Arlington police department, also to Mr. Femia, for their alertness in returning to me my lost dog, who is a companion for a cripple.

"Mr. Femia went some distance to return him, after learning his whereabouts, thereby bringing joy to a sad householder. His kindness to animals has been proven to me in the past, when he boarded my dog.

"Arlington may well be proud of having such a kind man in the office which he holds. Let us hope he will continue in that office for many years.

A FRANK STATEMENT ABOUT PERSONAL LOANS

When it becomes necessary for you to borrow in order to meet an emergency, there are three things you should insist on—speedy service, low rates, strict privacy. We are bringing our Personal Loan service to your attention because it meets these three very important requirements... and because so many folks in neighboring towns have been using this Somerville National service in recent months.

There's no red tape, no delay, at the Somerville National. We even have a "loans by phone" department to help speedy service. (Miss Coyne at PProspect 6-9605 will give you full information about "loans by phone").

You'll find, too, that our rates are much lower than those of local private loan companies. A $300 Somerville National loan, for example, costs only $18.00 per year... $22.00 less than a loan of the same size costs elsewhere. Finally, we insist on strict privacy in all Personal Loan transactions... from the first interview to the final payment. No one will ever know you're a borrower unless you tell them.

For quick service, 'phone PProspect 6-9605 or visit our convenient Davis Square office — 399 Highland Avenue, corner of Grove Street — or our main office at Union Square.

Driver's Face Crushed As Truck Crashes Into Mass. Ave. 'Safety' Isle

Crashing into the bumper on the safety isle at Mass. Ave., and Lake St., as have many other unwary motorists in the past, a Bedford truck driver was seriously injured early Saturday morning.

Removed to Symmes Hospital, and still a patient there early this week, was Daniel J. Dellovo of 428 Concord Rd., Bedford, who suffered multiple fractures of the left side of the face, loss of six teeth and other injuries.

He was driving on Mass. Ave. at 4:25 a. m. when his truck rammed the safety isle, knocking down the flashing blinker and also badly damaging the truck, which was

Man Accosts, Attacks 2 Women On Street

A man, believed to be mentally deranged, jumped out of an auto on Brattle St., early Friday morning and attacked a woman and her daughter who were on their way home. The man later was apprehended by police, and committed to a mental hospital for observation.

Mrs. Eleanor Pacifici of 21 Lansdown Rd., told police that she and her grown daughter, Norma were on their way home at 12:20 a. m. Friday, and were walking opposite 77 Brattle St., when the man accosted them, engaged them in argument and finally struck Mrs. Pacifici.

Mrs. Pacifici obtained the first three numbers of his auto license, and also gave police a good description of the man himself, and shortly afterward Patrolmen Bradley and O'Leary, in a scout car, bought the man in and booked him as a suspicious person.

Questioning of the man showed him talking irrationally, and he was sent to the hospital.

Irish music will be furnished by St. Catherine's band of Norwood and St. Patrick's band of Watertown.

'Air Force Day' Sept. 18

The Air Force Association, a civilian organization of more than 100,000 former Air Force men and women, has been commissioned by W. Stuart Symington, secretary of the U. S. Air Force, to be official sponsor of a huge national observance of Air Force Day next Sept. 18; it is announced by C. S. Cummings, commander of the Arlington AFA Squadron.

Wing organizations in every state, and squadrons in hundreds of cities and towns, will participate in planning and carrying out the program.

Laud Congress For Steps On Preparedness

The preparedness program approved by Congress is evidence that "the nation is at last building a fitting memorial to its war dead by insuring the world peace," says C. S. Cummings, of Arlington Squadron of the Air Force Association.

"For the first time in recent history," said Mr. Cummings in a statement this week, "Congress has decided that a strong America in peacetime is the best insurance against another 'war time'. This far-reaching decision provides an element of security heretofore lacking. Twice in the lives of most of us we as a nation have paid the price of unpreparedness. Certainly it is time we tried a new approach."

Girl, 4, Faces Long Convalescence From Severe Body Burns

Still on the danger list at Mass. General Hospital, but now given more than an even chance to recover, four-year-old Monica Cotter of 77 Oakland Ave., faces long months of convalescence from the cruelly severe burns she received when her clothing ignited June 5.

The girl's father, John E. Cotter, told the Press this week he appreciated the fine work done by doctors at Symmes Hospital and at Mass. General; he feels that if his daughter recovers it will be due entirely to the prompt and expert aid she received.

The child now is over the first shock of the burns, which consumed about 60 per cent of the skin on her body. She was helped over the shock by a blood transfusion.

"She is in very capable hands," said the father, who himself was badly burned about the hands in extinguishing the flames, "and we have every hope that she will return to us well. But it will be a matter of months."

Monica's nightgown caught fire when she attempted to pop some popcorn in the kitchen of the family home.

There is no shortage of ambulance service in Arlington," says ex-Marine Armstrong. "We are available any time, for trips anywhere. And physicians who have used our service agree that our charges are reasonable."

Armstrong is a 1943 graduate of Arlington High, and has spent all of his 23 years in Arlington. He saw three years' service during the war, and took special courses in first aid before launching his ambulance service.

The council's next step, Pres.

Warner explained, will be to acquaint young people themselves with the activities of the 16 youth organizations that joined the council. The executive committee will work out a definite program during the summer, and a general meeting will be held in early fall.

The council's other officers are:

Mrs. Chester J. Powers, vice president; Daniel J. McFadden, second president; Mrs. Lawrence G.

Wessells, secretary-treasurer; and executive committee, Mrs. Miller

Laufman, Raymond S. Morrill and Mrs. Walter F. Cooledge, Jr.

St. Agnes CYO

Wins 10 To 0

The St. Agnes CYO Intermediates blanked St. Paul of Cambridge at Spy Pond Field last Friday by a lopsided score of 10-0.

Tom Coughlin, making his first appearance on the St. Agnes mound, went the seven inning distance to chalk up a superb record of allowing only three hits, four bases-on-balls, and 14 strike outs. "Mike"

Keefe led the attack of the home-towners by banging two of the team's five hits, a double and a single. Ed Murphy's triple was likewise a big blow in forcing three runs across the plate in St.

Agnes' big seven run fourth.

The team will play at Spy Pond

Field every Friday night from now to Aug. 6th. All are invited to attend. There is no admission charge.

Private Ambulance Is Now Serving Arlington On Out-Of-Town Trips

A needed and appreciated service is being rendered residents of Arlington by the Arlington Ambulance Service of 245 Highland Ave., which has a luxurious, well-equipped Cadillac ambulance available at any hour of day or night.

Already well patronized by local doctors, this private ambulance service fills a real need in view of the fact that the police ambulance does not expect in extreme emergencies—travel beyond the town limits.

As Police Chief Archie F. Bullock explained in a statement last week, the police ambulance cannot be sent on out-of-town trips because it might suddenly be needed in case of an accident.

It is largely because of the fact that ambulance services here were necessarily limited that William Armstrong, 23-year-old Marine Corps veteran, not so long ago got himself a GI loan and bought a modern, $6,000 ambulance. Unlike the police vehicle, it is intended solely for use as an ambulance—not as a combination ambulance and patrol.

It is equipped with oxygen, cots, blankets, stretchers and everything else to take proper care of patients being transported over short or long distances, and Armstrong and his assistants are qualified to use this equipment. Young Armstrong's mother, Mrs. W. F. Armstrong, is a registered nurse and accompanies her son and his assistant whenever advisable.

The big, easy-riding Armstrong ambulance is used for trips to out-of-town hospitals, to transport invalids to new homes, to bring patients home from hospitals and for other like purposes. It was this ambulance that was used, a couple of weeks ago, when a four-year-old child, badly burned, was transferred from Symmes Hospital here to Mass. General Hospital.

"There is no shortage of ambulance service in Arlington," says ex-Marine Armstrong. "We are available any time, for trips anywhere. And physicians who have used our service agree that our charges are reasonable."

Armstrong is a 1943 graduate of Arlington High, and has spent all of his 23 years in Arlington. He saw three years' service during the war, and took special courses in first aid before launching his ambulance service.

Henry Lamb Dies At 95

One of Arlington's oldest residents, Henry T. Lamb, 95, of 50 Wyman St., was placed at rest yesterday in Mt. Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, following services at the D. W. Grannan and Son Funeral Home.

A native of London, Mr. Lamb came to this country as a child and until his retirement 10 years ago was a die stamper and engraver in Boston.

He leaves three sons, George J. Lamb, with whom he lived; John P. Lamb and Henry Lamb of Dorchester; two daughters, Mrs. Rose Alexander of Boston and Mrs. Clara Davison of Nova Scotia; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.
